The meeting on March 5, 2009 is an opening meeting, and we are to bring new prospective members. Ron Ruff still needs business cards – about 50 – from most members.

Reg Warner presented information about the Community Improvement Corporation that PRGL can join for $50.00. The organization helps new businesses that come into town. The discussion on whether to join this organization was tabled until next week.

Ted Tom presented the idea that we can do a trade show on Thursday, April 30th from 6 – 7:30 PM. Travis and Tammy from the Chamber will help. Ted Tom and Reg Warner will also be working on it but everyone's help will be needed. We need to let Ted know how we would like our businesses presented especially if we are not able to be at the trade show. We will probably provide drinks. A motion was made by Mark Bohach and seconded by Russell Howell that we have the trade show. The motion was carried.

Ryan Burgoon will be e-mailing members as to when they are scheduled to speak.

Ryan Burgoon from ActionCoach was the featured speaker. He passed out information about the company and gave us brief background of himself. ActionCoach was started in 1993 in Australia and is a worldwide organization. The company takes you from here you are now to where you want to be.

The meeting was adjourned.
