Speaker: Sharon Powell, Town Crier

Sharon become interested in the Town Crier looking for a source where she could find out what was going on in her community. The paper carries great positive hometown stories and sports highlights. They focus their stories on people who make a difference in our community of the present and past. The paper has 2 editions and is getting ready to start a 3 in Lancaster October 8th. The Eastern Edition does the area of Somerset to Sugar Grove while the OTC distributes over 25,000 colored copies to the northern side of the county. The Town Crier runs bi-weekly, the Eastern and Lancaster one week and OTC the other week. You can call Sharon for rate quotes for one or all 3 of the papers and also have them delivered so that you may carry them in your business.
