Speaker: Jon Wymer-Wild Land Tree Care

Jon has been in the tree trimming business for 12 years. His career started out with him being an EMT and decided that wasn't his passion as he enjoyed the outdoors, especially rock climbing. He became a tour guide at a camp in Hocking Hills and also started working for a tree company. He was hired to trim trees for a new zipline business the company building the zipline offered him a job to travel and trim trees for their various locations. In 2012, he came back home and met his soon to be wife. Once they were married, he started working at Geneva Hills clearing trees and paths. Unfortunately, he was laid off and that's when he decided to open Wild Land Tree Care. Since then, his business has grown into stump removal and brush hogging as well as tree removal and trimming. Jon answered questions from the group and also reminded members that he does offer a discount on his services to all PRGL members. Check out Jon's YouTube channel and facebook page for videos of Wild Land Tree Care's work.
